

2019 - 20 AWORI SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Awori Welfare Association of Nigeria (AWAN) is hereby using this medium to invite indigent Awori sons and daughters graduating from PUBLIC Junior Secondary School (JSS3) to Senior Secondary School (SSS1) with effect from 2019/2020 academic session to apply for these financial need-based merit scholarships, offered by the foremost diaspora organization for Aworis, the Coalition of Aworis and Descendants in Diaspora (CANDID®), USA. Scholarship amount is up to N100,000 (One Hundred Thousand Naira) per student/per session.

This scholarship program is predicated on CANDID®'s philosophy that this point of ascent in students academic career is the best level at which to start out supporting brilliant, but indigent students who are ripe to make career decisions on fields of specialization - sciences, arts etc. The progress of such beneficiaries will be monitored towards providing them needed support towards pursuing further academic undertakings at chosen Nigerian institutions of higher learning.

AWARD CRITERIA:

1. Awori Indigeneship, verifiable with documents from Obas, etc.
2. Academic Performance – verifiable with school results (Junior WAEC or Equivalent) with excellent results from the start of JSS 1–3; and
3. Financial Need – through verifiable proof of financial need to further their education. Essentially, private school students need not apply.

APPLICATION DATES (September 18 – October 18, 2019)
